

CONTENTS

Acknowledgment	ix
Introduction: A Long Life Is God's Grace	xi
1. Community Living	1
Many people who live long face community living. How does the nursing home setting compare with other communities?
2. Please Get to Know Me	7
Nursing home residents want what every person wants: They want to be known for who they are, where they have been, recognized for what they have done, and have the comfort of living with those who know them.
3. "M" Is for the Many Things She Gave Me	15
It's culture shock when the person in the nursing home is my mother .
4. Create a Buzz	19
There is an individualized way to keep the nursing home residents and their life stories current with the caregivers.

5. Come In—The Door’s Open29
You need to know the nursing home where your elder will live. Here are ten suggestions on visiting the elder in a nursing home.
6. The Best-laid Plans43
Here is help on how to cope when things go wrong.
7. Communication49
Because of the one-on-one time that family members spend with their loved one, they notice the changes before staff members are aware. They can learn to communicate effectively with the staff.
8. Who’s on First?57
The focus is on the responsibilities of key personnel.
9. Residents’ Rights65
State laws dictate the rights of individuals in nursing communities. How do those rights translate into everyday situations?
10. What If It’s Alzheimer’s Disease?73
Family members need to know how to visit and how to turn those visits into a connection and to adjust expectations.
11. The Christian’s Joy81
When the family can’t be there, you can keep connected to your faith.
12. Let Go and Let God87
You can prepare for the loss of a loved one.